MOVING ON

Sophie: How has this just happened?
This wasn't meant to be.
This wasn't how I planned it,
he was meant to be kissing me!

I never saw the signs,
I just let them pass me by,
and blinded by my own hope,
it's too late now to deny.

What on earth was I thinking?
Sophie, you stupid fool.
You'd mapped out your entire future,
is fate really this cruel?

Perhaps I've known this whole time?
Living in ignorant bliss.
Did I think I could sustain the act?
That it, it would come to this.

Once again, I start again,
complete with broken heart again

Moving on, I'm continuing on my path.
Moving on, I pick myself up and I dust down my pride.
Sometimes a simple laugh can steer you oh-so-clear,
Moving on, moving on starts here.

Charlotte: It's time to face up to my life and hold my head up high.
Oh god, it's such a cliché, I knowingly live such a lie.

Both: Plenty more fish in the sea they say

Charlotte: and something 'bout windows and doors.

Sophie: Good things will happen to those who wait.

Both: It never rains but it pours.

Once again (once again),
I start again (I start again),
complete with broken heart, again.

Moving on, I'm continuing on my path.
Moving on, I pick myself up and I dust down my pride.
Sometimes a simple laugh can steer you oh-so-clear,
Moving on, moving on starts here.

Moving on, I'm continuing on my path.
Moving on, I pick myself up and I dust down my pride.
Sometimes a simple laugh can steer you oh-so-clear,
Moving on, moving on starts here.

Moving on, moving on starts here.
Moving on starts here!
