

SAFE IN THESE ARMS

George: I've been your friend forever I need to finally share a piece of me that matters, a piece of me that cares.

I've loved you from a distance, I've longed to take your hand.
We've only been good friends, not knowing where to stand.

Sophie: I lie here by your side,

Both: I know now that it's you, not in my wildest dreams, did I dare this to be true.

Safe in your arms, I belong
safe in your arms, I belong here in your arms, all night long and be together, forever,
to you I pledge
my heart to you, I pledge
my life to you
and live forever, together,
safe in these arms.

For right now in this moment, our future in your eyes.
I see a world before us of wonder and surprise.

Safe in your arms, I belong
safe in your arms, I belong
here in your arms, all night long
and be together, forever,
to you I pledge
my heart to you, I pledge
my life to you
and live forever, together, safe in these arms [x4]

Sophie: George, could you help me with something?

George: Anything
