

WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

What happens now?
If I give you all my love
Will you be mine?
Will you be mine?

What happens now?
You had just a little taste,
re-read the signs,
re-read the signs.

If it's love, it's meant to be,
I hope that you see me for me,
there is a good man to set free.

What happens now?
What happens now?

What happens now?
We can leave this all behind,
and start again,
let's start again.

To be strong, I must forgive,
and with your help I'll learn to live,
I have my whole heart here to give.

I'll follow you,
that's what happens now.
